2008 STUDENT PRESENTATION CONTEST

JRSA is pleased to announce the Fifth Annual Student Presentation Contest in conjunction with the 2008 Justice Research and Statistics Association National Conference. The winner will have all expenses paid to present a research paper at the conference, which will be held October 16–17, 2008, in Portland, Oregon.

Entry Criteria

- To be eligible, an entrant must be a graduate student in an accredited university program in the United States when the paper is submitted.
- Work submitted must be applied research that was conducted during 2007 and/or 2008 toward fulfillment of a graduate degree. Only one entry per student is allowed.
- The research must fall within a criminal justice area such as corrections, courts, sentencing, civil justice, cybercrime, computer crime, terrorism, reentry, domestic violence, juvenile justice, drug use, victimization, or law enforcement.
- The paper to be presented must not have been published in a professional journal.
- The winner must be able to present the paper in person and is expected to participate in the entire two-day conference.

Entry Guidelines

- A letter of intent to submit a paper, including the title and abstract, should be submitted by Monday, March 31, to studentcontest@jrja.org.
- Papers must be submitted electronically by 5:00 p.m. eastern time on Friday, May 30, to studentcontest@jrja.org.
- Papers must not exceed 25 double-spaced pages in 12-pt. font, exclusive of references and appendices.
- The paper must include standard elements of a research paper, including an abstract (50–100 words), introduction, literature review, methodology and analysis section, findings, and discussion.
- The cover page must include: the author's name (if there are multiple authors, all must be graduate students, only one may enter the contest, and that name must be clearly identified); contact information, including email address; the name of the graduate school; the time period during which the research was carried out; and the date the paper was completed. If the paper has been presented at other conferences, indicate the conference and date.

Judging

Submissions will be rated by an independent panel of reviewers. Determination of the winner will be made by JRSA and announced in August. JRSA reserves the right not to award a prize if no entry is deemed qualified. All decisions will be considered final. See judging criteria below.

Staff of JRSA, the Bureau of Justice Statistics, and the state Statistical Analysis Centers are ineligible to apply. Questions should be directed to studentcontest@jrja.org.

The Justice Research and Statistics Association is a national nonprofit organization. For more information about JRSA, see our Web site at www.jrja.org.
