Victim Services for Secondary Victims of Homicide

Memphis Police Department (TN) and the University of Memphis

Families and friends of homicide victims may be burdened with issues related to:
- Obtaining copies of death certificates
- Life insurance
- Loss of income
- Trauma/shock

OBJECTIVES

Determine secondary victims of homicide satisfaction with MPD’s victim services

Address the full scope of needs of this population

Methods:

Hold three focus groups of 5-7 secondary victims of homicide that were served between October 2020 - December 2021

Implications:
- Show the impact of services to victims and identify any problems in practice
- Show how the Victim Services Unit can improve policies and processes for contacting and providing services to secondary victims of homicide
- Provide a foundation for a lasting program necessary in a high-crime jurisdiction

Memphis Police Department (TN) and the University of Memphis

Families and friends of homicide victims may be burdened with issues related to:
- Obtaining copies of death certificates
- Life insurance
- Loss of income
- Trauma/shock

OBJECTIVES

Determine secondary victims of homicide satisfaction with MPD’s victim services

Address the full scope of needs of this population

Methods:

Hold three focus groups of 5-7 secondary victims of homicide that were served between October 2020 - December 2021

Implications:
- Show the impact of services to victims and identify any problems in practice
- Show how the Victim Services Unit can improve policies and processes for contacting and providing services to secondary victims of homicide
- Provide a foundation for a lasting program necessary in a high-crime jurisdiction

This infographic was produced for the International Association of Chiefs of Police by the Justice Research and Statistics Association under cooperative agreement number 2018-V3-GX-K049 awarded by the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this infographic are those of the contributors and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.